

Information regarding the user's responsibilities for aids

Prescribed aids are the property of Region Skåne. You borrow it for free as a personal aid until it is no longer needed.

An aid is often used in various places and contexts, and as a user, you are responsible for.

- financial compensation for the aid if it is destroyed or damaged due to fire, theft, water damage, carelessness, vandalism or mismanaged maintenance, as well as compensation for injuries or damage affecting you or your property. You are also responsible for injuries or damage affecting other persons or their property, in accordance with the current rules for paying damages. You are advised to review the protection given by your insurance.
- storing the aid in a safe way. If the aid is also used in pedagogical or daily activities, the concerned organisation shall also be informed of its responsibility for safe storage.
- reporting faults or damage to the aid. Only the Hjälpmedelsenhet, the Synenhet and the entrepreneurs employed by us are allowed to carry out/order repairs to the aid.
- giving your new address to the prescriber/hjälpmedelsenhet well in advance if you are planning to move.
- returning the aid when it is no longer needed.

The signatory has partaken of this information. This is also noted in the medical records.
